

Question 1:

All drainage systems are composed of interconnected network of streams, and they form distinctive patterns.

- a) Interlinked
- b) Interacted
- c) Interchanged
- d) Interfered

Question 2:

In ancient Greek theaters, stairs divided the seating into two wedge-shaped sections.

- a) Cut equally
- b) Put in categories
- c) Split
- d) Formed into piles

Question 3:

Being beside the sea allowed Spanish sailors the chance to adventure several hundred years ago.

- a) Design
- b) Create
- c) Explore
- d) Unusual

Question 4:

According with the design of the National Policy, a new Northern frontier was opening up to enhance the prospects of Canadian industrial development.

- a) Disrupt
- b) Restore
- c) Identify
- d) Improve

Question 5:

Sometimes there are breaks in the layers of rocks and the breaks allow oil and gas to bubble up and eventually they reach the surface of the Earth.

- a) Finally
- b) Actually
- c) Naturally
- d) Certainly

Question 6:

The forms of significant artistic and intellectual activity in civilization are usually religious, and occupy a prominent place in urban environment.

- a) Weak
- b) Important
- c) Small
- d) New

Question 7:

Between one-third to one-half of the existing mountain glacier mass could disappear over the next hundred years and there is the conclusive evidence for a worldwide recession.

- a) Definite
- b) Independent
- c) Unique
- d) valuable

Question 8:

The architect Lloyd Wright conceived the long, sweeping ground-hugging lines, as reaching out toward and capturing the expansiveness of the Midwest's great flatlands.

- a) Utilized
- b) Noticed
- c) Created
- d) examined

Question 9:

With the stone barrel vault, the churches could achieve the soaring, majestic space we see nowadays.

- a) Retains
- b) Accomplish
- c) Decorate
- d) Finance

Question 10:

The Kaufmann House is a prime example of the building-to-size relationship.

- a) Most important
- b) Most numerous
- c) Most common
- d) Most accepted

(adapted from TOEFL iBT Preparation)