

Question 1:

The first computer may actually have been located in England.

- a) Area
- b) Found after searching
- c) Situated
- d) Near

Question 2:

Some marketers use personal demonstrations to get customers accustomed to products.

- a) One-to-one
- b) Sensitive
- c) Owned
- d) Of a person

Question 3:

The goal of the students is to learn and remember what they read.

- a) Score
- b) Desire
- c) Guide
- d) Choice

Question 4:

The terms “computer system engineer” and “computer system analyst” are often used for the same position in a company.

- a) Place
- b) Opinion
- c) Job
- d) Pose

Question 5:

Be positive when you are reading.

- a) Optimistic
- b) Certain
- c) Pessimistic
- d) Vague

Question 6:

Speaking a new language correctly is important for effective communication.

- a) Accurately
- b) Unpleasant
- c) Actively
- d) Physically

Question 7:

The smartphone is a new instrument that allows people to access the internet from anywhere.

- a) Manner
- b) Information
- c) Device
- d) climate

Question 8:

A gamer uses a keyboard to handle the characters in the computer game.

- a) Manipulate
- b) Avoid
- c) Practice
- d) Span

Question 9:

Police must study the evidence before they decide which suspect to arrest.

- a) Influence
- b) Analyze
- c) Circulate
- d) Request

Question 10:

A paleontologist can give us special knowledge on the diet of a stegosaurus.

- a) Opportunity
- b) Manner
- c) Insight
- d) Task

(adapted from TOEFL iBT Preparation)